CALIFORNIA KING WINS THE STONYBROOK STAKES, BUT IS SET BACK FOR FOULING.

Ormonde's Right Given the Race—Frank Gill in Front Again—Danny Maher to Ride for Lord Derby.

New York, November 13.—After the finish for the Stonybrook Stakes today California King was disqualified for a palpable foul, he swerving to the right in the last half furlong. Ormonde's Right was about to pass California King when Ross seemed not only to let his mount bore over, but also plainly to bump Ormonde's Right. As the latter was a heavily backed favorite the decision seemed popular.

In the second race, won by Frank Gill, McGinnis put up Shaw at the request of little Notter, who says he cannot do full justice to the Collar colt. The change netted success. It was the best betting race of the day, Wheeler putting $5,000 on Purslane, followed by Seagram and the Canadians. Dave Johnson and Frank Farrell were told by McGinnis to go as far as they liked in backing Frank Gill and they won thousands on him.

From abroad comes several interesting items including the definite retirement of the great mare Pretty Polly.

For next year Danny Maher has given first call to Lord Derby, for whom he rode many winners, notably Bridge of Canny.

"Skeets" Martin is to receive $10,000 a year for two years in Austria.

Recently in Austria, Fred Taral and his son John fought out a desperate finish for a half mile and the little fellow won.

NEARING THE CLOSE AT OLD PIMLICO TRACK.

Orphan Lad Shipped to Bennings—Intended Cam paigners at Ascot Park in Consternation.

Baltimore, Md., November 13.-There was a tinge of winter in the air today that made overcoats necessary. Still, as the storm held off and the was greatly improved, the racing was far better than had been anticipated, in fact it was The success of the meeting, together with what has been the result for several years back, has induced the management to rush the completion of the plans for the new track. The Maryland Jockey Club directors held a meeting this morning and decided to break ground at once at Halethorne, Md., with the idea of having the new course ready for the fall meeting of next year. The stock of the new organization will be distributed among some of the best people, not alone of this city, but at all points where the social element is a part of turf affairs. The new track will be about ten minutes from Baltimore and about thirty-eight from Washington, or both the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio

Starter Dade has consented to partially lift the suspension of jockey J. Hennessy and has agreed to let him ride for his employer, Willie Shields, to-morrow Orphan Lad will be shipped to Bennings in the morning as he is to be a starter in the Grand Consolation Stakes that will be run as one of the features of the opening of the meeting of the Washington Jockey Club. This colt is better now than he has been all season and it will take a pretty shifty one to beat him.

A seemingly malicious rumor reached here today that there would not be any racing in Los Angeles this winter and the tale brought consternation among the horsemen, who were planning a winter campaign at Ascot Park. Several wired for confirmation of the story, but no replies were received.

C. E. Mahone will ship his entire string from here to Hot Springs, where he will rest up pending the opening of the gates at Oaklawn Park in February.

BENNETT AND ELLISON'S YOUNGSTERS.

Memphis, Tenn., November 13.—C. R. Ellison and G. C. Bennett were here today looking over their valuable racing interests, embracing young and old horses in winter quarters at Montgomery Park. Bennett has just returned from the east where he enjoyed his most profitable season on the turf in his career as an owner. Ellison said he failed to win much money with his racing stable, but admitted having a prosperous year with the bookmakers. Seventeen yearlings have been brought in from the Bennett farm and placed in the hands of trainer Mulholland to try out for next year's racing use. Ellison has five yearlings in local training including the recently named Governor Hughes, a brother to Salvidere.

OPENING HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Racing, rudely interrupted last spring by the earthquake that laid San Francisco in rulus, April 18, will be resumed at Oakland next Saturday. Appearances augur well for the success and prosperity of the winter campaign of 1906-7. The stables at Oakland are filled to overflowing. The track and its rebuilding, is a teeming hive of human endeavor. Money is pouring into the hands of industry and the recipients are eager to get rid of "it in payment for amusement and recreation.

The feature of the first day is the Opening Handicap. This is a dash of a mile for three-year-olds and over. It closed Octobed 29, with forty-one nominations. At the time of its annual running many horses destined for California racing are still on the other side of the Rocky Mountains taking part in the late meetings of the middle west and the east, so the Opening Handicap does not receive as many entries as the stakes that are to be run later on. But it has enough and plenty to assure a fine race and the entries and weights are as follows:

THREE CHAMPIONS OF OTHER DAYS.

Foxhall, foaled in 1878, never raced in America. but was shipped to England when a yearling. two years old he made his debut at the Newmarket Second October meeting in the Bedford Stakes, five furlongs, defeating Myra, Ishmael and Mynheer. Same meeting was second in the Ashley Sweep stakes, five furlongs, to Savoyard, beating Simnel Lamprey and Montgomrie. Newmarket Houghton meeting won the Bretby Nursery Handicap Plate, five furlongs, defeating Heyday, the favorite, to om he gave twenty-four pounds; Accelerato, and een others. When three years old was second to the Derby winner Bend Or (4) in the City and purban Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, with Post Obit, Peter, Prestonpans, Petronel and seven teen others behind him. He then crossed the Channel and won the Grand Prix de Paris, defeating Tristan, Albion, Fiddler and six others. He was returned to England and without a gallop started in the Ascot Gold Cup, won by Robert the Devil, Foxhall, the only three-year-old in the race, failing to get a place. Newmarket First October meeting won the Grand Duke Michael Stakes, one mile, two furlongs and seventy-three yards, defeating Don Fulano, Ishmael and Maskelyne. Second October meeting won the Cesarewitch Stakes (Handicap) two miles, two furlongs and twenty-eight yards, carrying 110 pounds, defeating Chippendale, Fiddler, Petronel and fifteen others. Won the Select Stakes, for three-year-olds, Rowley Mile, defeating Tristan and Maskelyne. Houghton meeting Foxball (3) won the Cambridgeshire Stakes (Handicap) one and one-quarter miles, carrying 126 pounds, from Lucy Glitters (3) 91 pounds, second; Tristan (3) 107 pounds, third; Peter (5) 140 pounds; Bend Or (4) 134 pounds, and twenty-seven others. Foxhall had up the highest weight ever carried successfully by three-year-old in this race, and it is probable three-year-old ever ran a better race. He won the Ascot Gold Cup as a four-year-old, and started next day in the Alexandra Plate. He was not in condition and was defeated by Fiddler (by Preakness, a son of Lexington) whom he had beaten several times, and this ended his racing career.

The famous English trainer, William Day, spoke of him as the best horse he had ever handled, and John Porter, of Kingsclere, trainer of Ormonde, Flying Fox and Persimmon, names Foxhall as one of the ten best horses he ever saw.

doo, by Virgil, dam Florence, by Lexington, foaled in 1878, was in some respects a better race horse than Luke Blackburn, as he was a first-class two-year-old, winning seven of his nine starts. Hin doo won the Colt and Filly Stakes at Lexington, the Alexander and Tennessee Stakes at Louisville, the Juvenile and Jockey Club Stakes (one mile for twoyear-olds) at St. Louis, the Criterion at Chicago. three-fourths mile in 1:15, which was the fastest three-quarters ever run by a two-year-old to that date, and at Gravesend won the Tremont Stakes, one After the latter race he changed hands and at Saratoga ran third to Crickmore and Bonnie Lizzie in the Windsor Hotel Stakes, with Thora and four others behind him, and in the Day Boat Line Stakes finished second to Thora, in front of Bonnie Lizzie and three others.

Hindoo won eighteen out of twenty starts as a three-year-old, including the Blue Ribbon Stakes at Lexington, the Kentucky Derby and Clark Stakes at Louisville, the Tidal Stakes and Coney Island Derby at Sheepshead Bay, at Moumouth Park, the Ocean, Lorillard and Champion Stakes and Jersey St. Leger, and at Saratoga, the Travers, Sequel, United States Hotel, and Kenner Stakes. He ran second in the Brighton Beach Purse and third in the September Handicap, both of which races were won by Crickmore.

Hindoo won five out of six starts as a four-yearold. At Louisville, won the Cup, the Merchants and the Turf Stakes; at Sheepshead Bay, won the Coney Island Stakes and Coney Island Cup.

As a three and four-year-old, Hindoo defeated all of the best horses of his day, including Bend Or, Creosote, Getaway, Lelex, Alfambra, Bootjack, Thora, Sir Hugh, Jack of Hearts, Crickmore, Saunterer, Monitor, Gildelia, Eole, Compensation, Greenland, Parole, ChecPmate, Runnymeade, etc. Crickmore beat him when not at his best, but he beat Crickmore three times. Colonel S. D. Bruce, author of the American Stud Book, said: "Hindoo was the best racehorse which has appeared in this country for more than a decade, and it is doubtful if any horse in England could have beaten him in the great classic events." In the stud Hindoo got Hanover, next to Lexington the best of American sires.

Salvator, by Prince Charlie, dam Salina, by Lexington, was foaled in 1886. At two years old, he won four out of six starts; ran second to Procton Knott in the first Futurity Stakes; won the Flatbush and Maple Stakes, at Sheepshead Bay; Tuckahoe and Titan Stakes at Jerome Park. three years old, Salvator won seven out of eight races in which he started, that is the Tidal; Realization, one and five-eighth miles, Tenny, Long Dance, Longstreet and five others being behind him; the Lorillard, one and one-half miles, with 118 pounds up defeating Longstreet, Faverdale colt, and five others; was third to Longstreet, 118, and Proctor Knott, 120, in the Omnibus Stakes, one and one half/miles, Salvator carrying 125 pounds and finish ing in front of four others; won the Jersey Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, 124 pounds, in front of nine others; won the September Stakes, one and three-quarter miles, 129 pounds, beating J. A. B. and Sorrento; won a sweepstakes, one and one-six teenth miles, and a purse, one and one-sixteenth miles. As a four-year-old, he won all of his five In the Suburban Handicap, one and one quarter miles, 127 pounds, he beat probably the best field which ever started for this event, that is Cassius, 107 pounds, second; Tenny, 126 pounds, third; Reclare, Prince Royal, Longstreet, Firenze Raceland, and others; won the match against Tenny each carrying 122 pounds, one and one-quarter miles in 2:05; walked over for the Monmouth Cup, on and three-quarter miles; won the Champion Stakes, one and one-half miles, beating Tenny, each carrying 122 pounds; won purse of $2,500, one mile, to bea the best time on record, 1:39%, carrying 110 pounds, going the distance in 1:351.

ENVIABLE NEW YORK RACING.

"The Jockey Club has lived up to its agreement made with the Rev. Dr. T. R. Slicer last spring to hamper the poolfooms in the way of information. The establishment of a breeding bureau, which has placed numerous stallions in various parts of New York state to be bred to mares in the interest of the breeding industry, has done much to solidify the foundations upon which the sport has been built up," says the New York Sun. "The conduct of the racegoing crowds has at all times been above reproach, while the general management of affairs has been without a flaw. Discipline on the racetracks is the secret of universal decorum. The Jockey Club rules with a rod of iron, a policy that is neces sary when the different elements that go to make up racing are taken under consideration. popularity of the turf was never more evident than now. The patronage of the public is widespread and loyal, which means that the confidence placed in the stewards of the Jockey Club remains un When another campaign rolls around, therefore, the turf will be even better patronized, no doubt, particularly if individuals who have excited suspicion this year are either curbed or suppressed in the meantime."

VOTE TO ANNEX ASCOT PARK.

It is reported that the proposition to annex to the city of Los Angeles that outside district in which Ascot Park is located was carried by a narrow margin at the special election held Monday. In the long run this will probably do away with Ascot Park racing, but is not likely to affect the meeting scheduled to open Thanksgiving Day. The ordinance does not go into effect for some time and it is said that the validity of the election will be assailed in the courts, which will delay matters until the end of the approaching meeting. In the meantime the reason for the track at Arcadia is plain and it will probably be pushed to completion as speedily as may be possible.

CHANGED ENGLISH RACING CUSTOMS.

All-the-year-round racing is not singular more now to England than to the United States. Time was, and within the memory of comparatively young men, when racing did not go on in England during November, December, January and February, but the coming of the gate-money meetings, of Kempton and Sandown Park changed all that, and now there is racing every day in the year, Sundays excepted, somewhere in the United Kingdom, and frequently several meetings going on simultaneously, the strictly winter months being mainly given over to hurdle racing and steeplechasing.

ROWE WILL NOT GO TO BENNINGS.

New York, November 13.—Trainer James Rowe will not go to Bennings. His stable retires after Aqueduct. He has won upwards of $10,000 for Mr. Keene and he feels that both he and his horses are entitled to a let-up. Suffrage is the only Keene horse in a Bennings stake. She is in the Columbia Handicap and if sent for it will be in charge of Thomas Healey. Rowe did not put a two-year-old in the Grand Consolation. He now probably regrets that Zambesi and Philander are not eligible.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Succeeding San Antonio, racing began yesterday at Houston, Texas, with a big array of horses, ten bookmakers and a big attendance.

Tourenne will go into winter quarters after filling his engagements at Bennings and should do the Kirkfield Stable good service at Toronto next May. On his two-year-old form he certainly holds Mr. Seagram's Purslane and Main Chance safe.

FAVORITES FARE BADLY.

LATONIA SPECULATORS GO ASTRAY IN EN-DEAVORING TO LOCATE WINNERS.

Dr. Leggo Loses a Hard Luck Race to Tartan—St. Joseph Again Defeated—Sam
Stephens Pays Up.

Cincinnati, O., November 13.—With moderating weather, the attendance at Latonia today was one of the largest of the meeting. The card, while evenly balanced in the matter of class of horses, afforded no easy picking and those of the public who pitted their wits against the layers of odds, scored only once and that was when King Pepper won at a remunerative price. All of the other races went to second choices and outsiders.

C. C. McCafferty and his followers received a severe blow when Dr. Leggo was beaten in the third race. This horse has been under careful training all summer and McCafferty thought he had him placed where there was no chance for him to lose. The horse ran a good race, but was interfered with early and lost ground, and then was only beaten in the hardest sort of a drive by Tartan.

A lot of money was wagered on Dr. Spruill, which ran disappointingly to his backers. Besterling was also in demand by speculators, but he is a heavy headed horse and Swain, who rode him, appeared to be unable to do him justice. Moreland had been engaged for the mount, but on account of an accident yesterday was unable to fulfill his engagements, If McCafferty failed to win with Dr. Leggo, he more than made amends when his Nonie Lucille captured the fifth race at an outsider's odds. Toboggan, the favorite and under the guidance of Aubuchon, was in one of his sulking moods and got off poorly. He will be shipped tomorrow to New Orleans, and Street will send the others of his string now quartered at Douglas Park to the Crescent City shortly.

M. J. Daly and his connections again displayed confidence in the speed of St. Joseph and, especially as C. Morris was to ride instead of Carroll. Hazelthorpe beat him handily and it is evident that this good colt has not yet quite rounded into his best form.

T. C. McDowell who has had a moderately successful season in the east was a visitor at the track. McDowell has all his horses turned out at Ashland Farm near Lexington. Speaking of the Blue Grass yearlings, he said he thought that Captain Wilden had a very promising filly, and also that H. M. Ziegler, for whom C. H. Hughes is trainer, had one or two in his barn that will be heard from next season. The steeplechaser, Dell Leath, will be shipped to Washington Saturday to be raced there.

Jockey Munro left tonight for Memphis to try out some fearlings there after which he will go on to New Orleans.

Sam Stephens, who was fined $1,000 at the Louisville fall meeting on account of his altercation with Ed Alvey, paid the amount to Judge Price and was allowed to draw in today.

PRETTY POLLY RETIRED.

The most famous race mare of recent times, Pretty Polly will race no more and her passing from the turf to the paddock has not been attended with any flourish of trumpets. The famous mare will go to Major Eustace Loder's stud at Eyrefield Lodge, Ireland. Polly, it is said, was almost human in her work, and the greatest regret is felt that she should have suffered two defeats. Every now and again certain animals in England are described as "horses of the century," but of late years they have come to grief in a most disappointing manner. Had Pretty Polly gone to the stud at the end of her four-year-old career, many would have claimed the title for her, as no one in England paid serious heed to her defeat in France. The rude awakening came in the Ascot Gold Cup, when Bachelor's Button ran the daughter of Gallinule out of it at the

Whether she was beaten on her merits, however, is a debatable point, and when the true history of that race comes to be wirtten it will probably be found that she was a most unlucky loser. Still, she was beaten, and that is the all-important point. Whether unluckily or not does not matter—the verdict will aiways rank against her. The daughter of Gallinule won nearly $186,000 for Major Loder, which falls short of the winnings of some of the famous horses of the past.

Her career at the stud will be watched with extraordinary interest, and it is to be hoped that she will produce something as good as herself. Brilliant mares on the turf, however, have a habit of proving failures at the stud, but Polly will be in a country which has become famous for the extraordinary merit of the horses bred there. "Breed in Ireland and train in England" would appear to be a royal road to success on the British turf. It is thought likely that Pretty Polly will be mated with Bachelor's Button. It would be a royal wedding.

Winner—B. f, by Woolsthorpe—Hazeléean (trained by S. M. Henderson).

Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Hazelthorpe, running to her best form, sprinted away from her opponents in the first quarter, opened up a winning lead quickly and had enough left to stall off the challenge of St. Joseph. The latter followed the winner closely, went wide on the turn into the stretch, but at all stages was best of the others. Grace Kimball began slowly, but finished with a rush. Ralbert showed speed, but quit as if short. Stoner Hill quit all over when the real racing began.

(trained by J. I. Smith).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Frank Gill was reserved in the early running, but moved up when Shaw made his call in the stretch and, drawing away, won in a canter. Oraculum showed much the most speed for the first half, but lost a lot of ground by going wide on the home turn and tired in the stretch. Purslane was hard ridden from the start and appeared dangerous at the head of the stretch, but failed to stay in the final drive. Linnepee ran well throughout, but was outclassed by the placed horses. Bright Boy went well. Smiling Tom can does the correct weight in entries—Tuckermuck, 98.

Overweights—Linnepee, 1 pound.

65489 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (1:45%—3—99.) Stonybrook Stakes. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $1,155.

Winner—Ch. g, by Ormonde—Right (trained by J. Boden).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
California King was always a close contender, caught Ormonde's Right at the furlong post and seemed to be winning easily, when he suddenly swerved to the outside fence, causing Notter, on Ormonde's Right, to pull up sharoly. Notter claimed foul and it was allowed. Ormonde's Right set the early pace, but was made too unclu use of and tired, finishing resolutely, however. Wes went well, but was tiring fast at the finish and just lasted long enough to beat Sir Ralph for third place.
